

BENSON – SEASON 2

The Governor's In Charge. Benson Is In Control.

Synopsis:

Benson (Robert Guillaume, TV's "Sports Night") confronts two new obstacles to maintaining order in the wacky household of the widowed Governor Gatling - Chief of Staff Clayton Endicott III (Rene Auberjonois) and Press Secretary Pete Downey (Ethan Phillips). While working to fix the problems these two newcomers create in the executive mansion, Benson manages to foil a foreign plot to steal a priceless gold statue, help his chief nemesis Gretchen Kraus (Inga Swenson) gain citizenship, and withstand a siege by protesters who've encircled the governor's mansion. And after he and Governor Gatling are caught by a muckraking press corps as they are helping an old friend who has taken ill in a bordello, the unexpected death of the State Budget Director leads to Benson being elevated to the post.

Target Audience:

Family

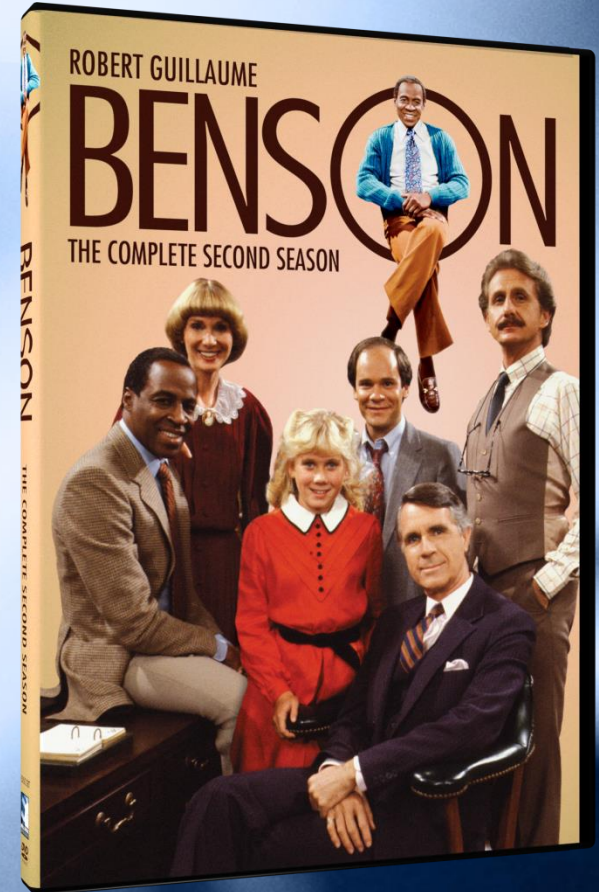

Notable Cast/Crew:

Robert Guillaume, James Noble, Inga Swenson and Missy Gold

Created and written by Susan Harris (Golden Girls, Benson) and Executive produced by Paul Junger Witt (Golden Girls, Benson)

Key selling points:

- Aired for 7 seasons (1979-1986)
- A spin-off of Soap
- Series received 15 Emmy® nominations and a WIN for Robert Guillaume as Outstanding Lead Actor in a Comedy Series
- Season 2 features the television debut of comedian Jerry Seinfeld who appears in a 3-episode story arc

Title	UPC	Item #	Format	Genre	SRP	Cost	Rating	Runtime	# Disc
BENSON – SEASON 2	683904536525	53652	DVD	TV	$9.98	$xx.xx	Not Rated	9 hrs 23 mins	2