

CLASSIC HORROR – 4 MOVIE COLLECTION

Synopsis:

Five

Starring: William Phipps, Susan Douglas, James Anderson, Charles Lampkin, Earl Lee

Intriguing, offbeat film by famed radio writer-director Arch Oboler about the survivors of a nuclear holocaust. FIVE stars William Phipps, Susan Douglas and Charles Lampkin, and is probably the first film to deal with a post-apocalyptic theme.

The Mad Magician

Starring: Vincent Price, Mary Murphy, Eva Gabor, John Emery, Donald Randolph, Lenita Lane

A master magician murders his greedy employer, who legally owns every trick he can invent, and finds himself having to kill again.

The Man Who Turned To Stone

Starring: Victor Jory, William Hudson, Charlotte Austin, Jean Willes, Ann Doran, Paul Cavanagh

A psychiatrist (William Hudson) and a welfare worker (Charlotte Austin) catch ageless scientists taking the life of reform-school girls to keep themselves from turning to stone.

The Terror of the Tongs

Starring: Christopher Lee, Yvonne Monlaur, Geoffrey Toone, Marne Maitland, Brian Worth, Ewen Solon

A prim London merchant travels to Hong Kong to exact revenge on the gang who murdered his daughter.
