

Death Row – A History of Capital Punishment in America

Capital punishment has been a controversial practice ever since the beginning of American society. This documentary takes an in-depth look at the questionable sentence of death within our judicial system. The stories of the first execution on U.S. soil to the deaths of this country's most dangerous serial killers are retold along with commentary by leading experts who have studied the controversial practice. Get a glimpse into the cells and lives of those who await their fate on death row.

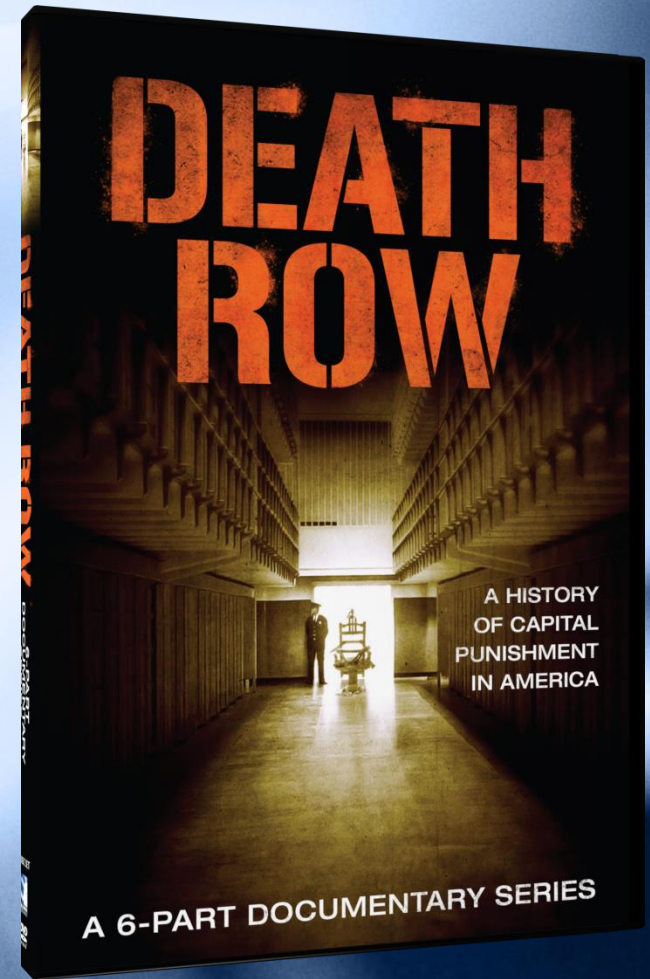

- 400 Years of Capital Punishment in America
- Executing Serial Killers Part I
- Executing Serial Killers Part II
- Most Famous Executions
- On Federal Death Row
- Last Meals and Last Words

Target Audience: Teen-Adult – Politically active consumers, History enthusiasts

Notable Cast/Crew: Produced by award-winning documentary company, Centre Communications

Key selling points:

- An All-New Documentary Series produced by Centre Communications
- Highly controversial subject matter – documentary offers fact-based perspective

Title	UPC	Item #	Format	Genre	SRP	Cost	Rating	Runtime	# Disc
Death Row – A History of Capital Punishment in America	683904544421	54442	DVD	Doc	$14.98	$xx.xx	TV-14	TBD	2