While the two indulge in a storybook romance complete with extravagant dinners, hundreds of roses and a champagne-filled swimming pool, the clock is ticking on Martin's million-dollar debt to the mob. I LIKE IT LIKE THAT 107 min. - Lauren Vélez, Jon Seda, Rita Moreno

When her well-meaning husband is arrested, a young mother, Lisette, finds herself unprepared to support the family. Fast-talking her way into a job with a record producer (Griffin Dunne), Lisette quickly discovers her own hidden talents. But the boys in the neighborhood report back to Chino that she is "dating" her bigwig boss, leading to a major confrontation that changes their life together. For Lisette, every day has become Independence Day.

YELLOW 93 min. - Roselyn Sanchez, D.B. Sweeney, Bill Duke

Sometimes you have to lose everything before you find yourself. Roselyn Sanchez (Rush Hour 2, TV's Devious Maids) plays a young, classically trained Latina ballerina, who dreams of leaving her impoverished home in Puerto Rico to pursue fame and fortune as a dancer in New York. Trying to make ends meet, she works at a seedy club and quickly sets audiences afire with her erotic moves. When she falls in love with a regular customer (D.B. Sweeney), she must decide between an audition for a Broadway production and true love.

PASSIONADA 104 min. - Jason Isaacs, Sofia Milos, Emmy Rossum

Sometimes passion needs a little persuasion. Sofia Milos (TV's CSI: Miami) stars as a widowed mother who refuses to date even years after her husband's death. Daughter Vicky (Emmy Rossum, A Phantom of the Opera, TV's Shameless) is set out on a quest to find romance for her mom - even if it means striking a deal with a handsome gambler (Jason Isaacs, The Patriot, Black Hawk Down) whom no mother would ever approve!
