

Synopsis:

War Brings Out The Beast In Every Man

Afghanistan, 1981, and the Soviet Union is locked in a futile and bloody battle with the Mujahedeen guerillas. Separated from their patrol, the crew of a Russian T-62 tank engages in a deadly game of cat and mouse with the local insurgents led by Taj (Steven Bauer). The tyrannical tank commander Daskal (George Dzundza) wreaks havoc on a peaceful Afghani village, pushing the moral boundaries of the tank driver Koverchenko (Jason Patric) to the limits. Sensing mutiny, the psychotic Daskal abandons the disenchanting tanker to die in the desert at the hand of rebels, only to find he's sealed his own fate.

Target Audience: Men 25+; War movie fans

Notable Cast/Crew: George Dzundza (Basic Instinct), Jason Patric (FOX's Wayward Pines), Steven Bauer (Showtime's Ray Donovan), Stephen Baldwin (The Usual Suspects)

Key selling points:

- Director Kevin Reynolds is also known for Robin Hood: Prince of Thieves and The Count of Monte Cristo
- War-themed movies are extremely popular given the success of Hacksaw Ridge, Free State of Jones and the upcoming Dunkirk
- OOP since 2012 with marketplace inventory currently selling for +$30

“Dramatic and moving, THE BEAST delivers its genre goods and explores the nature of the Soviet-Afghan conflict without employing polarizing rhetoric.”
 - TV Guide

<https://youtu.be/hcJuxYXpI5w>

Title	UPC	Item #	Format	Genre	SRP	Cost	Rating	Runtime	# Disc
The Beast	683904546531	54653	DVD	Action	$9.98	TBD	R	1 hr 51 min	1