

Synopsis:

This is the real story of how America became armed, the story of America's first Silicon Valley, the Connecticut Valley of the mid-19th century. It is the story of the Founding Fathers of America's gun industry: Samuel Colt, Oliver Winchester, Eliphalet Remington, Horace Smith, and Daniel Wesson, as well as a conger of lesser-known American gun innovators.

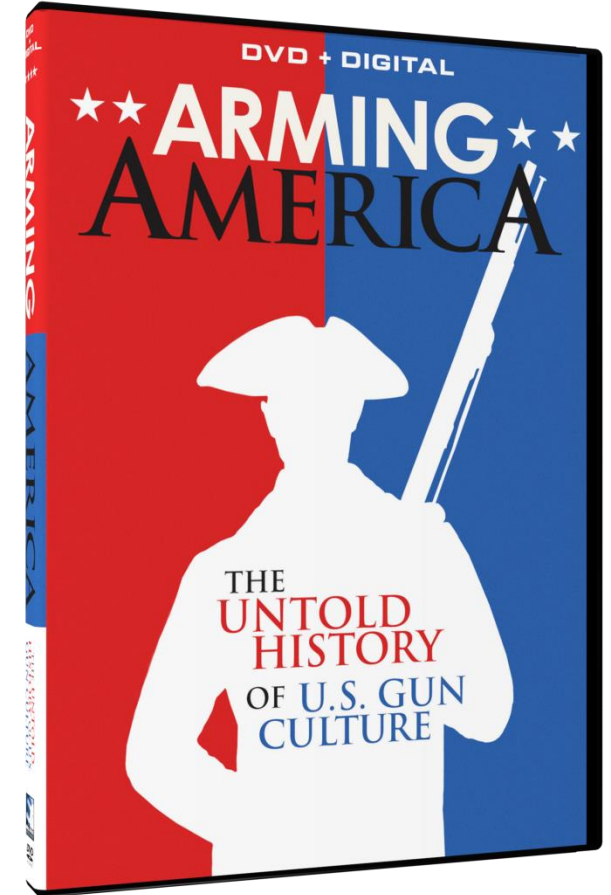

Target Audience: Hunters, Historians, NRA Members

Notable Cast/Crew: Produced by the award-winning Centre Communications

Key selling points:

- An all-new feature-length documentary
- Takes a non-political stance on the history of firearms and the founders of popular gun manufacturers
- An important origin story that is still timely and relevant
