

Short Synopsis:

Adolf Hitler has left an incomparable mark of evil on the pages of history.... a horrifying legacy that still haunts people around the world. This captivating documentary collection provides a brutal, honest and untold portrait of the life and events of history’s most evil dictator with 3 poignant documentary series that expose his terrifying truths.

SWASTIKA is the most controversial documentary about Hitler ever made. From producers Sanford Lieberson (Lisztomania, Jabberwocky), David Puttnam (Chariots of Fire) and director Philippe Mora (Mad Dog Morgan), the film utilizes intimate home movie footage shot by Eva Braun to present the private life of a dictator, going on picnics and joking with friends, displaying an affable face to the man labeled as pure evil by history. As the opening credits state, "If Hitler is dehumanized and shown only as a devil, any future Hitler may not be recognized, simply because he is a human being."

Additional documentary series include:

- Hitler: Anecdotes, Myths and Lies (aka Hitler: The Untold Story)
- U-Boats: Hitler’s Sharks

Critic Quotes/Reviews:

“A fascinating document, none the less, that spares us a commentary, letting the material speak for itself.” – TimeOut London

“Paying close attention to the Hitler of these home movies gives one a deepened sense of who he was.” – Wall Street Journal

Target Audience: Historians, WWII Enthusiasts

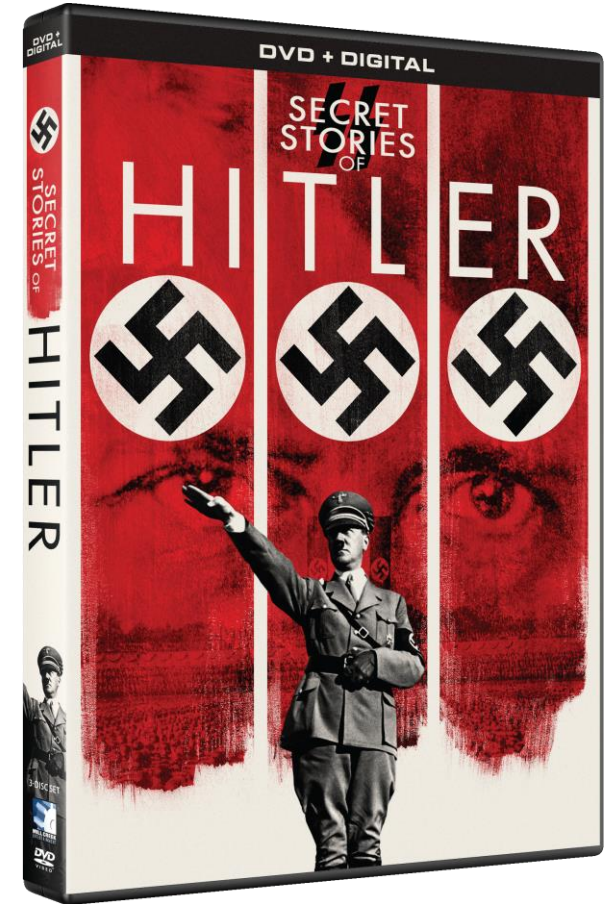

Notable Cast/Crew: Directed by Philippe Mora (Mad Dog Morgan, Communion, Richard III)
