

Short Synopsis:

Forget who gets to keep the ring, when a couple splits, the real question is, who gets to keep the friends? In this modern comedy, a couple's break-up will complicate all of their friends' lives and make everyone question their choices. When life throws you for a curve, hold on tight to the people you love.

Full Synopsis:

Take six twentysomething Chicago friends, add cocktails and hormones, shake and you've got Happy Endings, the hilarious comedy that asks: "When a couple splits, who gets to keep the friends?"

Dave (Zachary Knighton, TV's Flashforward) finds fulfillment manning a food truck after losing his hot fiancé, Alex (Elisha Cuthbert, TV's 24), at the altar. Alex's type-A sister, Jane (Eliza Coupe, TV's Future Man), is almost happily married to horn-dog Brad (Damon Wayans Jr., TV's New Girl). Dave's roommate, Max (Adam Pally, TV's The Mindy Project), is a gay, sports-loving slob, and Penny (Casey Wilson, TV's SNL) is on the prowl for a good man. . .or men.

The laughs are nonstop as they do what tightly-knit friends do best: hang out, have fun, debate the meaning of life, hook up, break up, and do it all over again!

"Blending comedic elements of Friends, Arrested Development, and 30 Rock, it manages to serve up something new and refreshing by being both consumed by and annoyed with the frenetic world we live in. It's biting, but easy to swallow – social commentary at its best"
- Rolling Stone

"It's one of the sharpest and warm-hearted comedies on the air, and I enjoy it a lot more than Modern Family."
- Huffington Post

Marketing Points:

- A modern take on the classic sitcom formula similar to Friends and How I Met Your Mother
- The cast reunited for Entertainment Weekly's PopFest for a live reading a new, "lost" episode
- Show and cast have a strong Social Media following:
  - Facebook – 494,000 followers
  - Twitter – Adam Pally = 146k, Casey Wilson = 105k, Eliza Coupe = 24k, Elisha Cuthbert = 149k, Damon Wayans Jr = 422k, Zach Knighton = 22k

Talent Information:

- Popular guest stars appeared throughout the 3-season, 57 episode run on ABC including: Nick Zano, Megan Mullally, Rob Corrdry, James Wolk, Mary Elizabeth Ellis, Christopher McDonald, Mark-Paul Gosselaar, Paul Scheer, T.J. Miller, Rob Riggle, Andy Richter, Max Greenfield, Colin Hanks and more!
- Zachary Knighton is slated to play Rick in CBS's reboot of Magnum, P.I.
